

(formerly the National Association of State Universities and Land-Grant Colleges)

Ian L. Maw, PhD

Vice President, APLU

A Public University Association

- The nation's oldest higher education association
- Dedicated to excellence in learning, discovery and engagement.
- 218 public research universities, land-grant institutions, many state public university systems.
- More than 4.0 million students enrolled
- Award approximately a 750,000+ degrees annually
- Estimated 20+ million alumni worldwide

Purposes:

- To support high quality public higher education and its member institutions as they perform their teaching, research, and public service roles.
- To provide a forum for the discussion and development of policies affecting higher education and the public interest.

Organizational Chart

APLU's Roadmap

- Inform the public, Congress, federal agencies, et al of the special contributions of public universities
- Promote federal legislative programs that strengthen higher education
- Encourages strong partnerships among public universities, the federal, state and local governments, business, and other segments of higher education.

Commission on Food, Energy and Renewable Resources

- Board on Agriculture Assembly
- Board on Human Sciences
- Board on Natural Resources
- Board on Oceans, Atmospheres and Climate
- Board on Veterinary Medicine

Ian L. Maw, PhD
Vice President,
Food, Agriculture and Natural Resources
APLU

imaw@aplu.org